

AUDITION NOTICE

Carmen

Opera NEW JERSEY

su•per•nu•mer•ar•y (sū'pər-nū'mə-rĕr'ē, -nyū'-)

An actor without a speaking part, as one who appears in a crowd scene.

Opera New Jersey is looking for supernumeraries for its February 2010 production of Carmen, summer season 2010, and for all future productions. Supernumeraries perform many essential roles in operas. In the past few seasons supers have been:

courtesans • slave girls • servants • samurai

Whether you are an experienced performer or new to the stage, being a super at Opera New Jersey is both fun and challenging!

For consideration, please send a full body photograph (ALL body types needed) and a performing resume (if applicable) to Info@Opera-NJ.org.
